

Campus Alcohol Policy

- Promotion of alcohol should not encourage any form of alcohol abuse nor should it place emphasis on quantity or frequency of use
- Beverage alcohol advertising which promotes an event as well as a product or brand should not portray drinking as a solution to personal or academic problems of students or as necessary to social, sexual or academic success
- The name of the sponsoring student group must be larger than that of a specific brand/product
- Beverage alcohol (such as kegs, cases of beer, bottle of wine or liquor) must not be provided as free rewards, gifts or prizes to individual students or campus organizations
- “All inclusive” pricing for event (i.e., all you can drink) advertising is not allowed
- Prices of beverage alcohol are not permitted to be advertised
- You may not bring in your own alcohol or serve alcohol yourself
- Food must be served if alcohol service is provided.
